

Prakram Diwas Celebration

St. Thomas College of Education celebrated Prakram Diwas on 23 January 2025, with great enthusiasm to commemorate the birth anniversary of Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose, a legendary figure in India's freedom struggle. The event was organized to honour his remarkable contribution to India's independence and to inspire students with his values and ideology.

The event began with a ceremonial start as the B.Ed. faculty members offered flowers and lit a lamp in front of Netaji's portrait, symbolizing respect and reverence for the great leader.

Following the opening, the Hindi Professor of the department delivered an insightful speech on the biography of Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose. The speech highlighted his early life, leadership in the Indian National Army, and his unwavering dedication to India's freedom.

Dr. Kavita added a poetic touch to the celebration by reciting a poem penned by Gopal Prasad Vyas. The poem, rich in patriotism, stirred emotions and invoked pride among the audience.

One of the key moments of the Programme was a student enactment based on Netaji's famous slogan, "Tum mujhe khoon do, main tumhe azadi dunga". The performance brought to life the fervor and determination of the freedom movement, leaving the audience inspired and deeply moved.

Dr. Indu Bala, who hosted the programme, ensured its smooth progression. The celebration concluded with the Head of the Department delivering a heartfelt vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to all participants and contributors. The event ended on a patriotic note with the singing of the Rashtragan (National Anthem).

