

Vibrant Holi Celebration at St. Thomas' College of Education

12 March 2025

The festival of Holi was celebrated with great zeal and joy at St. Thomas' College of Education on 12 March 2025. The event brought together faculty members in a vibrant and festive atmosphere, highlighting the essence of unity, tradition and happiness.

The celebration commenced in the reception area, where all faculty members gathered to mark the occasion. The event was inaugurated with an insightful speech by the Dean, Dr. M. K. Tyagi, who eloquently explained about the spiritual significance of Holi. He emphasized that Holi is a festival symbolizing the victory of good over evil and fosters harmony among individuals.

Next Dr. Mugdha Anand, Head of the Department, addressed the gathering and shared valuable insights on celebrating a safe and ideal Holi. She highlighted the importance of using natural colours and maintaining a spirit of togetherness and respect during the festivities.

Following the speeches, the atmosphere became lively with music, and faculty members enthusiastically danced with full energy and joy. The celebration reached its peak as everyone played with colourful gulal spreading happiness and cheer.

To conclude the celebration on a sweet note, gujyas were distributed among the faculty members as a token of love and appreciation. The celebration successfully reinforced the spirit of Holi, leaving everyone with cherished memories of camaraderie and festivity.

Overall, the Holi celebration at St. Thomas' College of Education was a delightful and meaningful event, fostering unity and joy among the faculty members.
