

St. Thomas' College Celebrates International Women's Day

7 March 2025

St. Thomas' College celebrated International Women's Day on 7 March 2025, with great enthusiasm and inspiration on the college campus. The programme commenced at 11:00 AM with a book reading session in the library, where students explored literature highlighted the achievements and contributions of women across fields.

At 12:00 PM, faculty members and students gathered in the reception area to take a pledge for Nasha Mukh Bharat and Dahez Mukh Bharat, reaffirming their commitment to a progressive and empowered society.

Following the pledge, students assembled in the classroom, where the Head of the Department (HOD) extended warm wishes to everyone on this special occasion. The HOD also delivered an inspiring speech, emphasizing the remarkable qualities of women and their indispensable role in shaping society.

The event concluded on a cheerful note with refreshments distributed to students and faculty as a token of love and appreciation.

The celebration not only honoured the spirit of womanhood but also instilled a sense of responsibility towards building a more equal and just society.
