Earth Day Observance Celebration at St. Thomas College of Education

Date: 22 April 2025

On 22 April 2025, the students and faculty of St. Thomas College of Education observed Earth Day to promote environmental awareness and responsibility among future educators.

To mark the occasion, Dr. Mugdha Anand, Head of the Department, shared a participation link via the College's WhatsApp group. Students registered through this link and later received digital certificates of participation upon completion.

After obtaining their certificates, students were instructed to share them to the college's official email ID for documentation and acknowledgement. This initiative not only encouraged active participation but also emphasized the importance of digital responsibility and environmental stewardship in modern education.

The event was successful fostered ecological awareness among students and highlighted the importance of individual contributions in safeguarding our planets sustainability.
