

Dr. Bineeta Agarwal is an educator and a teacher at heart. Madam is Principal at Satyam College of Education, Noida, affiliated to SNDT Women's University, Mumbai. She is associated with Satyam college since 2008. She is B.Sc., M.A., M.Ed. and Ph.D. in Education from Panjab University, Chandigarh. She was awarded Ph.D. in 2002.

She has a vast teaching experience of 23 years in different schools and colleges in NCR. Inspired from many super heroes, she encountered, in the form of teachers, throughout her personal and professional journey, she values dedication and innovation in education as her core virtues. She began her carrier at the grass root level as a teacher and then transitioned into teacher trainer roles. As her carrier progressed, she made significant contributions to curriculum development, digital learning and hands-on-learning initiatives. Under her control and guidance, college has achieved new milestones of being NAAC accredited B++, permanent affiliation and recently new courses B.A., B.Com., B.Sc. are given affiliation by the university.

Madam is the director of courses run under the banner CHETNA. She has published more than 20 papers in National and International journals of education and language.

These transitions were driven by her strong desire to increase the impact of her work at the ground level. Her journey is a testament to her unwavering commitment to enhance educational experiences and outcomes. Dr. Bineeta's strong research background adds a unique dimension to her educational expertise. An eloquent speaker and trainer, she is frequently invited as guest speaker at various colleges and universities.

Beyond her professional achievements, Dr. Bineeta is a multifaceted individual who finds joy in music, reading and exploring new places. She embodies the spirit of lifelong learning and is a perfect student herself.