

Brief Profile Dr. Jyoti Bhardwaj

Dr. Jyoti Bhardwaj is a highly accomplished psychologist, educator, special needs consultant, and counsellor with over two decades of dedicated service in the field of mental health and inclusive education. Holding a Ph.D., M.Sc., and M.A. in Clinical Psychology, along with an RCI-accredited qualification in Rehabilitation Psychology, she brings profound expertise in clinical and rehabilitation psychology, psychotherapy, inclusive education, family counselling, and support for children with learning disabilities.

As a licensed practitioner with the Rehabilitation Council of India, Dr. Bhardwaj has been actively involved in training educators and mental health professionals through reputed institutions such as SCERT, CBSE, and the Department of Education. Her distinguished career includes impactful associations with Moolchand Medcity, IGNOU, Expressions India, St. Thomas' School, St. Thomas College of Education, and currently, she continues to guide future psychologists and educators as a faculty member at IILM, Greater Noida.

She has presented her research and clinical insights at national and international forums and published papers in several peer-reviewed journals, contributing significantly to the discourse on mental health and inclusive practices in education. Known for her empathetic approach and deep understanding of human behavior, Dr. Bhardwaj has played a vital role in promoting mental well-being, emotional resilience, and inclusive educational environments. Her mission remains to create a society where mental health is valued, inclusivity is normalized, and every individual receives the support they deserve to thrive personally and academically.