

St. Thomas' College of Education,
Greater Noida
Organizes
NCW
Campus Calling
POSH Awareness Workshop

On 02nd April 2026

Report on NCW Campus Calling POSH Awareness Workshop

St. Thomas' College of Education, Greater Noida affiliated with Ch. Charan Singh University, Meerut organized an NCW Campus Calling POSH Awareness Workshop on 02nd April 2026 in A02 Hall with selected group of 15 participants including both Male & Female Faculty with 05 Students Volunteers in association with Yuvamanthan. The workshop aimed to create awareness about gender sensitization, prevention of sexual harassment, and the importance of maintaining a safe and respectful environment within educational institutions.

The programme witnessed active participation from the faculty and students of the college. The event began with a warm welcome to all participants, followed by an introduction to the objectives of the workshop. The organizers highlighted the importance of understanding POSH (Prevention of Sexual Harassment) guidelines and the role of educational institutions in promoting gender equality and dignity.

During the session, participants were administered an Oath on Gender Sensitization, emphasizing respect, equality, and zero tolerance toward any form of harassment or discrimination. The oath encouraged participants to contribute actively towards building a safe and inclusive campus environment.

Two informative videos highlighting the role of the National Commission for Women (NCW) were screened during the workshop. The first video focused on women's rights, legal protection, and the importance of gender justice. It emphasized the efforts made to safeguard women's dignity and promote equality in society.

The second video "NCW Works for the Welfare of Women" discussed Matritva Yojana (Maternity Scheme) and explained various government initiatives aimed at supporting women's health, maternity benefits, and overall empowerment. The video highlighted how these initiatives contribute to improving the socio-economic status of women and ensuring their well-being.

The workshop concluded with a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to Yuvamanthan, faculty members, and students for their active participation and contribution to the success of the programme. The event proved to be informative and enlightening, reinforcing the importance of gender sensitization and creating awareness about safe and inclusive educational spaces.

The workshop successfully enhanced awareness among participants and encouraged them to promote dignity, equality, and mutual respect within the campus and society at large. Both students and faculty appreciated the workshop in raising the awareness and sensitizing the participants about the issues related with women in modern India. They also suggested to have such more initiative and participation in this context.