

St. Thomas' College of Education

Faculty Profile

Dr. Kavita Singh
Assistant Professor

Dr. Kavita Singh is an educationist equipped with strong organizational and communication skills. She is M.Sc. (Organic Chemistry), M.Ed., UGC NET, Ph.D. (Education) and she has completed a certificate course in computer applications. She has 10 years of teaching experience. She had worked with Bangalore University and CCS University affiliated B.Ed. colleges. She also worked in Amity Institute of Education, Amity University Noida. She has presented research papers in many national and international conferences. Her research work has been published in SCOPUS, WEB OF SCIENCE indexed journals, UGC Care journals and chapters in edited book with ISBN number. Her patent has been published in Indian Patent Journal by Ministry of Commerce and Industry on Topic “Developing the skill based job matching platform for Indian Workforce.” She has attended many FDP’S and short term courses organized by NEIPA, DTU, IIT Gujrat and Amity University and also became resource person in short term course conducted by Ramswaroop Memorial University Lucknow. She is a professionally trained educator, currently working as an Asstt. Professor in the B.Ed. Department of St. Thomas’ College of Education, Greater Noida.