

Dr. Mugdha Anand

Head of the Department, B.Ed.

Dr. Mugdha is highly passionate educator with strong academic record and rich experience of teaching. She is working as Head of the Department in St. Thomas' College of Education, Greater Noida, U.P. She is M.Sc. (Environmental Botany), M.Ed., UGC –NET (Education), M.Phil. (Education), & Ph.D. (Education). She also did P.G. Diploma in Environmental Management. She learnt Computer Skills from NIIT. She is having about 20 years of teaching experience of M.Ed., B.Ed., & D.El.Ed. classes of C.C.S. University and other Universities. She has published work in the form of books, research papers, and articles. She organized and also participated in workshops, seminars, conferences and in the webinars as a presenter, moderator and as a participant. She has the experience of setting examination question paper, as an external examiner, as an evaluator and as a centre observer in many competitive examinations. Also, she has been appointed as an Internal Examiner in the Practical Examinations conducted by CCS University, Meerut for both B.Ed. first and second year students. She attended the workshop to review 'Diksha content for quality check' conducted by CIET, NCERT, New Delhi. She has also been appointed as an Expert to evaluate the Ph.D. Thesis and as an External Examiner for the Ph.D. Viva-Voce Examination conducted by JNR Vidyapeeth University, Udaipur, Rajasthan.